POPULAR BLAIRMORE TRAVELER IS KILLED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

Word of the disappearance of Denis Francis Fleming, following an auto accident near Michel on Thursday evening last, and the finding of the body in the creek bed four days later came as a severe shock to the whole Pass district, in which Mr. Fleming was so well and favorably known.

Mr. Fleming had been in Michel on Thursday, doing his regular rounds with the grocers in the interests of the Western Canada Wholesale Company, Limited, of Fernie. Towards evening he informed some friends of his wish to get back to Blairmore for the Elks' "do." In the hope of securing a ride, he intercepted several cars, until finally a small roadster being driven by Roy Wood, of Blairmore, came along and picked him up. T. Murphy, who was with Wood, was obliged to sit on Mr. Fleming's knee. Coming out of Michel towards a narrow piece of road the car failed to respond to the steering wheel at a slight turn and went over the embankment to the creek, some twenty feet below. Wood and Murphy managed to jump, the former clearing the car, the latter becoming entrapped beneath the car as it turned up against a bunch of trees on the river bank. Both were in a dazed state for a time and recovering consciousness discovered that Fleming was missing, supposedly having been thrown to the surging elements of the Michel Creek. They immediately reported and search parties were instituted. For three days and nights the search proved futile, until Tuesday morning, when two lads who had started out with a determination to find the body located the prostrate form on a sand bar about three miles west of where the accident happened. The waters had lowered some three feet or more in three or four days and the body was found high and dry. It was removed to a vacant store in Natal, where a preliminary inquest was held. Upon examination it was found that the body contained no water and that death resulted from a large gash in the head sustained before the body entered the water.

The remains were brought to Blairmore on Tuesday evening, accompanied by ten auto loads of Blairmore citizens. They were accompanied by Undertaker Riewers, of Fernie, who undertook immediately to embalm the body, preparatory to its being shipped east to Nova Scotia.

An impressive funeral service was held this forenoon at St. Anne's Catholic church. The Elks attended in a body to pay respects to their departed brother. Hundreds of citizens turned out to attend the service, which was conducted by Rev. Father Cozman.

The remains will be taken to the depot to be shipped by express tonight to his former home near Sydney, Nova Scotia.

Mr. Fleming is survived by a wife and two small children, residing on State Street east. He was forty-one years of age.

Mr. Fleming came to The Pass in 1913, and shortly afterwards assumed the management of the Sanatorium hotel at Frank, which position he held until the institution was converted into a military hospital in 1915, when he enlisted for active service. Since his return he has filled the position of travelling salesman for the Western Canada Wholesale Company, of Fernie, covering the territory from Natal to Pincher Creek weekly. He was a most energetic salesman and in that capacity was held in the highest esteem by all with whom he had dealings. He was a member of the new Elk Lodge in Blairmore and was also connected with the Knights of Columbus. He was anxious to get to Blairmore on

DEATH OF WILLIE HARRISON

The death of John William Clasper Harrison, which occurred on Thursday afternoon last, was sudden and rather unexpected. The little lad had but a few days previous complained of being unwell and upon medical consultation it was found that an immediate operation for appendicitis was necessary. The operation was performed, but too late and Willie's spark of life fled a few hours afterward. Willie maintained consciousness to the very last. While but thirteen years of age, Willie had made rapid progress in school, having entered his seventh grade, and was very popular with his schoolmates. He was also connected with the Trail Ranger groups of the Union church, in which he is keenly missed.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. At the Union church an impressive service was conducted by Rev. D. K. Allan, of Coleman, who acted in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. T. Young. The Trail Ranger boys turned out in a body to pay tribute to their lost member. The church was filled to capacity, so that some three hundred children of the public school were obliged to remain in the outside. The remains were laid to rest in the general Protestant cemetery.

Floral offerings were received from: "The Grandparents," Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. G. Vanoni, Miss Anna Pozzi, Miss Julia Arcuri, Irma Vai, Mr. and Mrs. Squaredell, Mr. and Mrs. Piforzi, The Blairmore Union Church Sunday School; The Principal, Staff and Students of the Public School, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moore and Family and Donna, Teacher and Pupils of Grade VII, Uncle Fred and Aunt Alice, Dick and Aunt Annie, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Thompson and Family, Father and Mother, F. S. Kafoury and Family, The Trail Rangers, Mr. and Mrs. Cherry and Gladys, J. C. Anderson and Family, Mrs. Vai, Rica Vanoni, Mr. and Mrs. A. Monecy, Charlie Ross.

With the bereaved parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, The Enterprise joins in sympathy.

"Lo! He is gone we loved so dear,
His absence we deplore;
His short-lived sufferings were severe,
But now they all are o'er."

COLONEL ROYAL BURRITT VISITS LOCAL ELKS' LODGE

Colonel Royal Burritt, grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of Canada and Newfoundland, paid an official visit to Blairmore Lodge on Thursday night last. Following the regular routine of business, he addressed the lodge. Col. Burritt is an able speaker and strong exponent of the principles of Elk fraternalism and benevolent enterprise. His talk on Thursday will long be remembered and the hope is expressed that he will be privileged to return to Blairmore again.

Immediately following the grand exalted ruler's address, word came to the lodge of the untimely and tragic end that had come to Brother Fleming. The lodge meeting adjourned out of respect, and the banquet, all ready to be partaken of at the Cosmopolitan hotel, was called off.

Colonel Burritt proceeded to Fernie on Friday morning's train and addressed the Elks of that city on Friday night.

Mr. M. E. Muscovich, solicitor, was up from Lethbridge on Wednesday.

Thursday night to attend the Elks' meeting, which was to be addressed by Col. Royal Burritt, the grand exalted ruler of the Elks of Canada and Newfoundland.

With the bereaved wife and relatives we join in sympathy.

Horses For Ontario and B.C.

Thirty Carloads Have Been Shipped From Southern Saskatchewan

Southern Saskatchewan has shipped thirty carloads of heavy draft horses this spring to Ontario and British Columbia. Twelve carloads were sent from Maple Creek, from the Playout and one from the Regina district.

"One of the finest lots of horses ever shipped from the province was shipped to British Columbia by J. B. Winlaw, of Wynndel, B.C.," said J. G. Robertson, livestock commissioner. "He was assisted in assembling his carload by Alex. McLaren, Pense. He bought six head at Pense, two at Tregera and the balance near Regina. The top price was $400 for a grade Clyde and he paid $300 for several others. Most of the horses purchased were grade Percherons, several of them being bred by Kamecon, a class AA stallion."

A Heavy Responsibility

U.S. Has Weighty Burden In Organizing Nations for Peace

The United States has a "weighty responsibility" in working out its contribution toward organizing the nations of the world for peace, President Coolidge declared in an address at the nation high school oratorical exercises in Washington.

The president offered no specific plan and made no reference to the League of Nations which has been brought forward again by the international council of women.

Sundering Of Empire Is Extremely Remote

Dominions Hold Envisable Position As Members of British Commonwealth

Those superficial thinkers who are skeptical of royalty should ponder over what is taking place in South Africa. There, just recently, stood Edward, Prince of Wales, amidst the Dutch leaders of the old Transvaal, a uniting power, acclaimed by men who twenty years ago were the empire's foes. By the charm of his personality, by his graciousness, by his democratic bearing, by his background of tradition, by his symbolism of what the British monarchy means, the Prince probably achieved as much for unity in that historic gathering as a score of acts of parliament could probably achieve.

Today the world perceives that under the British crown, under the British monarchist system, there flourishes the freest, the most representative and the most responsible government that history has seen. It perceives, too, that mere professions of freedom do not constitute freedom itself, that the terminology of liberty and liberty itself are two distinct things, that the mere assertion of devotion to representative government, so common in republics, does not in actual practice make governments representative.

It is something vast, something splendid, to be part of such a system. South Africa as a weak Republic, Canada as a state of the American Union—what would these be in comparison to their position as members of the British Commonwealth? That is the question that thoughtful men ask themselves; and just so long as they ask it, just so long as that interrogation remains, possibility of a sundering of the British empire is extremely remote—Ottawa Journal.

Importance of Mining

Six Hundred Million Dollars Invested In Industry

In a recent report issued by the Dominion bureau of statistics it is stated that over six hundred million dollars of cash is invested in the mining industry of Canada. In point of capital investment, mining exceeds all Canadian industries, with the exception of agriculture and railway transportation.

In the report the mining industry is credited with a total investment of capital amounting to $559,514,154, and with par. valuation of securities amounting to $774,749,281. These figures give some idea of the tremendous size of the mining industry in Canada. About half the mining capital is invested in the province of Ontario. Canadians provide 64 per cent, Americans 31 per cent, residents of Great Britain 13 per cent, and residents of other countries 2 per cent, of the capital invested in the industry.

The securities issued by mining and allied chemical companies reached one billion dollars three years ago, when the last figures were available from government sources. This figure is 50 per cent of the total for all the companies in Canada engaged in manufacturing.

Activity In Building

Increase In Amount Of Building Is Very Encouraging

An increase of over $90,000,000 in the value of contemplated new construction in Canada has taken place during the first four months of this year, according to figures which have been compiled by MacLean Building Reports Limited. The total value of new building in the Dominion during the month of April, 1928, was $11,494,000 more than in April, 1927, or a total of $24,886,000, compared with $13,292,000.

The past four months' total for contemplated work is $224,063,100, as against $133,189,100 for the same period in 1927. Residential building accounted for 42.5 per cent of the April total, and amounted to $10,529,000; business building 28.1 per cent, amounting to $6,991,700; industrial building 9.9 per cent, amounting to $2,472,500; and public works and public works 19.5 per cent, amounting to $4,993,700.

Drive For Wheat Pool

Campaign In Saskatchewan Will Be Started In June

The management of the Saskatchewan wheat pool, immediately the provincial elections are over, will start a province-wide movement to secure 2,000,000 additional acreage under contract.

Organizational work for the effort has already been started at the head office at Regina. At the same time it will attempt to secure the necessary percentage of acreage for the co-operative grain pool which will operate for the first time this year. The initial move for creating the pool is the signing of the contracts to all wheat pool contract holders.

Government Nurse Has

Thrilling Experience

Carried Mile Out to Sea on Cake of Ice

After narrowly escaping being carried to sea on a cake of ice while mauling around Cape Thomson, far within the Arctic Circle, on the north coast of Alaska, and experiencing other harrowing adventures on an expedition of mercy, Mrs. G. O. Brady, government nurse, has returned safely to Kotzebue Sound, a dispatch received.

Mrs. Brady started north March 27 from Kotzebue with Superintendent Chance to give medical attention in native villages and so on. Three hours after the departure, Chance and Mrs. Brady were overtaken by a blizzard, and were forced to take refuge in a native cabin at the mouth of Noatak River, after 14 hours of driving in a temperature of 50 below zero.

When the storm subsided, they continued to Point Hope, 800 miles north of Kotzebue Sound. On the return trip, Mrs. Brady was accompanied by a native hunter, as Superintendent Chance had preceded her. The natives, all high winds wrenched free ice cakes upon which Mrs. Brady and her guide were rounding Cape Thomson, and carried them seaward for more than a mile, before a reef stopped them and they could make their way to shore.

The Passing of Ellis Island

Likened to the Abolition of a Monster and Would Cause Little Regret

Its end would be hailed with little regret. From the government's standpoint it would be the passing of a "white elephant." From the humanitarian standpoint it would be the abolition of a kind of monster. Even in recent years the alleged horrors of the place were pictured in none too euphemistic terms in the British House of Commons. The Geddes report on the sanitary conditions stirred some English politicians and brought forth many explanations from the department of labor.

The old system of immigration, caused many to be treated more or less like animals. The old system has passed and now, too, will pass this somewhat notorious landmark of it—Louisville Courier Journal.

Charged Duty On Large British Flag

Intended For Gift But U.S. Customs Officials Had to Keep Law

A duty of $12 levied on a large British flag brought to the United States by the British advertising delegation, to be presented to the city of Houston, Texas, where the Advertising Clubs of the world were meeting in convention, aroused the ire of New York advertising men.

The flag brought by the British delegation was a large and handsome emblem of embroidered silk. It was a British flag brought to reciprocate for the beautiful American flag presented to English cities last year by American delegations to the advertising convention.

The customs men told the British delegates that the law required the levying of a duty of $12. The delegation explained that the flag was to be a gift but the authorities pointed to the law which makes no provision for such emergencies. The visiting delegation paid the duty and left with the flag.

When the New York advertising men heard about the incident they were indignant. They communicated with the customs authorities and asked for a refund of the money, but were informed that only special act of congress could grant the request.

"It is one of those unfortunate cases where the law works a hardship," said an official. "The law gives us no discretion in such matters. The law is on the books and we are charged with the duty of enforcing it. If the people don't like the law they should have it repealed or so changed as to meet these special cases."

The New York advertising men met the situation by refunding the $12 duty to the British delegates.

Growing Power of the West

Redistribution of Ridings Will Give the West More Representation

The Toronto Star remarks that the trend of political power in Canada is shown by the redistribution of ridings under which the next federal election will be fought. It says:

"Quebec will keep its quota of 65 members, but the representation of the west will be increased from 56 to 68, or an increase of 12 members, giving it control of 27 per cent of the seats in parliament as against 23 per cent in the present house."

"Western Canada feels that her interests have not been sufficiently considered in matters of tariff and transportation. She is the average easterner is certainly not unsympathetic toward the needs of that part of the Dominion. The attitude of our big interests and politicians may have fostered a wrong impression. But as the west is working to gain power to ensure that its welfare is not disregarded."

Miser Dies Of Starvation

Body Found In Smyrna Hovel With

Mitten In Gold and Jewelry
The body of a millionaire who died of starvation recently was found in the beggar's quarter of Smyrna. The man, about 80 years old, was known to most of the inhabitants of the city. When he had not been seen for several days his wife went in to look for him and found an entrance to his squalid habitation.

Among his fifty possessions were found large stocks of gold and silver coins, bank notes and jewelry, the value of which was estimated at $1,000,000.

It was said the miser had inherited his fortune from his wealthy family when he was a young man, and that his love for the money made of him an enemy of mankind.

Follow Alberta's Lead

Several of the United States are following the lead of the province of Alberta in adopting official cream grading systems. The latest to seek information is the state of Illinois, where it is hoped to work out some such system this year. The state of West Virginia is also endeavoring to inaugurate a system modeled on the Alberta system. It is expected that Dr. Mackay, secretary of the American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers, will visit Alberta this summer to study the system in Alberta.

Four small wooden vessels, well powered and sheathed in iron bark, are being built at Vancouver to the order of the Hudson's Bay Company, for use in the Arctic. They will act as tug and ferry between Coronation Gulf and Herschel Island.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 31

PETER AT LYDDA AND JOPPA

Golden Text: And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the signs by them, which they followed.

Lesson: Acts 9:32-43.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:1-7.

The Text Explained and Illumined

The Care of "Beneas, verses 32-35. Just as Peter and John had gone to Samaria to look into the work being done there by Philip the Evangelist, so Peter undertook, as we are now told, a journey of inspection to the Christian communities in the cities of the Maritime Plain. Jerusalem was still the center, and the apostles there must be kept in touch with the progress of the Kingdom elsewhere; therefore, as Chrysostom expressed it, like a commander of an army, Peter went about inspecting the ranks. In the course of his tour he visited the saints at Lydda.

We apply the word saint to one who is distinguished by extraordinary piety, but Luke uses it here synonymously with the word Christian. The saint was one who was trying to obey the will of God in the manner in which the duty in every discipline was a saint in the eyes of the world.

"Not the world-scorning anchorite, Not the new babe in garments white; Not these, 'old's types of saintliness; But he who grasps the world for Takes hold of life, and men, and things, And all that best to frustrate brings!"

—(James Buchman).

Britain's Financial Honor

Nations Reputation For Paying Debts Is Invaluable Asset

The fact that Great Britain never tried to argue the validity of her war loans has helped her immeasurably. The act of refunding her debt to this reputation for the strictest probity in all financial affairs. Neither the British Government nor the English bankers have ever lost sight of the fact that world confidence in a nation's financial integrity is the greatest asset it can possess. The granting of sterling toward parity during the last few years has been coincident with an ever-deepening faith in the financial honor of the British Empire.—Providence Journal.

Alberta Egg Production

Province Exported 133 Carloads of Eggs Last Year

Egg exports from Alberta increased 33 per cent during 1927, compared with the year previous, according to a report of the provincial department of agriculture. Three years ago, Alberta was almost entirely an importing province with respect to eggs, but last year it exported more than 60,000 cases, or 133 carloads.

Cabbage was first introduced in Great Britain in the sixteenth century.

Butter From Alberta

Total Production This Year Expected To Reach 25,000,000 Lbs.

Last year the province of Alberta exported to the British Isles and other countries over 4,000,000 pounds of butter, which was a little less than one-fifth of the total provincial production of creamery butter. During the present season it is anticipated that the surplus for export will increase to 7,000,000 pounds, which would be seven times what the exportable surplus was four years ago. This is an indication of the manner in which the dairy industry has grown in Alberta.

The increase in the exportable surplus of butter is in a great degree due to the improvement in quality arising from the official cream grading system inaugurated by the Provincial government in cooperation with the creamery operators three years ago. The anticipation is that the total production of creamery butter will this year reach 25,000,000 pounds.

Market In Belgium

For Canadian Cheese

Pasteurized Product Wrapped In Tin-foil Has Been A Success

During the last nine months of 1924 the imports into Belgium of Canadian cheese amounted to 1,764,800 pounds, which was a considerable increase over the imports of $1.10 per pound in nine months of 1923. "The increase this year," writes the commissioner, "is largely to be attributed to imports of patent Canadian pasteurized cheese in five-pound packets wrapped in tin-foil, which has had a real success in this market. One exporter of this cheese considers that it is now permanently established and sales of 20,000 boxes per month are mentioned as present."

CAPTAIN BLOOD

by RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini
"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Viograph picture with J. Warren Kerrigan
in the title role, in an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XX.—Continued

"It they so much as put a shot across my bows, you goest their Deputy-Governor to the yardarm. Your only hope, Colonel, lies in the fact that I shall send them word of that intention. And so that you may mend as far as you can the harm you have done, it's yourself shall bear them the message, my lord."

"I'll see you damned before I do," fumed his lordship.

"Why, that's unreasonable and un-reasoning. But if ye insist, why, another messenger will do as well, and another hostage aboard—as I had originally intended—will make my hand the stronger."

"Ay, ay, ay, my lord," said Blood. "And there's another thing." He proffered a parchment. "It's the commission. Bishop was right when he said it was a mistake."

"I am sorry," Lord Julian said slowly. "I still do not perceive—blister me if I do—why you should not have found someone else to carry your message to the Commandant, and kept me aboard as an added hostage for his chieftaincy to your wishes?"

Blood's vivid eyes looked into the other's that were clear and honest, and he smiled, a little wistfully. A moment he seemed to hesitate.

"Why shouldn't I tell you? It's the same reason that's been urging me to pick a quarrel with you so that I might have the satisfaction of slapping a couple of feet of steel into your vitals. When I accepted your commission, I was moved to think it might redeem me in the eyes of Miss Bishop—for whose sake, as you may have guessed, I took it. But I have discovered that such a thing is beyond accomplishment. I should have known if for a sick man's dream. I have discovered also that if she's choosing wisely between us, as I believe she is, she's choosing wisely between us, and that's why I'll not have your life risked by keeping you aboard whilst the message goes by another who might blunder it. And now perhaps you'll understand."

"And you tell me this?"

"I tell you because . . . Oh, plague on it!—so that you may tell me, so that she may be made to realize that there's something of the unfortunate gentleman left under the thief and pirate she accounts me, and that her own good is my supreme desire. Knowing that, she may . . . faith, she may remember me more kindly—It's only in her prayers.

That's all, my lord."

"Lord Julian held out his hand. "I wonder whether you are right," said his lordship, "and whether you are not the better man after all."

"Where she is concerned, see that you make sure that I am right. Good-bye to you."

The Arabella sailed within the hour, morning fairly before a strong breeze. The fort remained silent and there was no movement from the fleet to hinder her departure.

CHAPTER XXI.

War

Five miles out at sea from Port Royal, whence the details of the coast of Jamaica were being kept sharp, the Arabella bore to, and the ship she had been towing, was warped alongside.

Captain Blood escorted his compulsory guest to the head of the ladder. Colonel Bishop breathed freely at last. "A safe voyage home to you, Colonel," said he in valediction, and from his easy, smiling manner you would never have dreamt of the pain he carried in his breast.

On the mole at Port Royal, under the low, embattled wall of the fort, Major Mallard and Lord Julian waited to receive him, and it was with infinite relief that they assisted him from the sloop.

"Anyway, it's not for long," growled the Colonel, finding speech at last. "No, by . . ." He emphasized the assurance by an unprintable oath. "I spend the last shilling of my fortune and the last ship of the Jamaica fleet, I'll have that rascal in a hempen necktie before I rest." He had snarled in his angry yechenness, and the veins of his forehead stood out like whipcord. "Come, my lord. We must take order about this, you and I."

They went off together, skirting the redoubt, and so through courtyard and garden to the house where Arabella waited anxiously. The sight of her uncle brought her infinite relief, not only on his own account, but on account also of Captain Blood.

"You took a great risk, sir," she gravely told Lord Julian after the ordinary greetings had been exchanged. But Lord Julian answered her as he had answered Major Mallard. "There was no risk, madam. So that Blood's ship was allowed to pass the fort, no harm could come to Colonel Bishop. Blood pledged me his word for that."

Very early next morning, before the heat of the day came to render the open intolerable to his lordship, he stepped from his window moving amid the azaleas in the garden. He hurried forth to join her. He explained himself by the announcement that he bore her a message from Captain Blood.

Very early next morning, before the heat of the day came to render the open intolerable to his lordship, he stepped from his window moving amid the azaleas in the garden. He hurried forth to join her. He explained himself by the announcement that he bore her a message from Captain Blood.

Amongst us we have married his chance; your uncle, because he would not forget his rancour, you because . . . because having told him that in the King's service he would find his redemption of what was past, you would not afterwards admit to him that he was so redeemed. And this, although concern to remove you, was the chief motive of his embracing that name service."

"She had turned her shoulder to him so he should not see her face. His lordship's unusual nervousness was steadily increasing. "He thought, then—so he told me—that my presence here had contributed to his inability to redeem himself in your sight, and unless he were so redeemed, then was redemption nothing."

"He thought that you had contributed," she echoed.

"Ay, and he said so in terms which told me something that I hope above all things, and yet dare not believe, for God knows, I am no conqueror. Arabella. He said . . . I had gone aboard his ship to demand the instant surrender of your uncle. He laughed at me. Colonel Bishop should be a hostage for his safety. . . . By rashly venturing about his ship, I had put him in my own person yet another hostage as valuable at least as Colonel Bishop. Yet he bade me depart; not from the fear of consequences, for he is above fear, nor from any personal system for me whom he confessed that he had come to find detestable; and this for the very reason that made him concerned for my safety."

"I do not understand," she said, as he paused. "Is not that a contradiction?"

"It seems so only. The fact is, Arabella, this unfortunate man has the . . . the temerity to love you."

She cried out at that, and clutched her breast whose calm was suddenly disturbed. "Go on," she said to him. "Well, then," he said in me one who made it impossible that he should win you—so he said. Therefore he could with satisfaction have killed me. But because my death might cause you pain, because you might miss me, and the thing that above all things he desired, he surrendered that of his guarantee of safety which my person afforded him. If his departure should be hindered, and I should lose my life in what might follow, there was the risk that you might not mourn me. Because of that he bade me leave his ship, and had me put ashore. She looked at him with eyes that were awestruck with tears.

Effects Of Bad Temper

Increases Amount of Sugar in Blood and Causes Muscular Intoxication
Bad temper, an eminent pathologist has discovered, has the strange effect of increasing the amount of sugar in the blood by 10 per cent. to 30 per cent. in the course of a few minutes. That is why an angry man wants to fight the object of his rage. He becomes hot-blooded because the accession of carbonaceous material intoxicates his muscular system. The strange thing is that this rapid change is due to a tiny gland about the size of a pin. When it functions normally a person remains calm and even-tempered. If the essence cruder too lavishly, hatred, passion and quarrels ensue.

Many Homesteads Taken Up

100,000 Acres Homesteaded During First Three Months of This Year
Approximately 100,000 acres were homesteaded in the four western provinces during the first three months of this year, with 620 persons filing. Saskatchewan got the largest proportion of these settlers, while Alberta was second with 227, Manitoba third with 80 and British Columbia last with 27. During the first quarter of the year 100 soldier grants also were taken up, representing 7,000 acres.

Human Values

Norah Holland is in Toronto the other day; and the announcement was compressed in a paragraph. Yet Norah Holland was one of the finest and best beloved of Canadian poets, a sweet singer whose songs gushed from her heart, and whose work made life better and richer. We sometimes get strangely mixed in human values—Ottawa Journal.

Another Old Custom Passes

Whip-Women Of London Leave Old Covent Garden

The whip-women of Covent Garden are going to abandon the products of this famous produce market for the same reason that the village blacksmith is becoming an automobile policeman. The whip-women are among the picturesque denizens that go along with this most picturesque market square, and for the last 300 years an unbroken line of members of their families have checked the whips of the produce growers who frequent this market.

This concession of whip checking, which has supported many families for so long a time, was granted to six ancestors of the present-day whip-women in the sixteenth century when Covent Garden was really a convent garden of the Monks of Westminster outside which the farmers brought their garden truck to sell.

In that century half a dozen whip-women took charge of the whips of the farmers to keep them from the hands of thieves, and collected a penny from the owner at the end of the day. The number of whip-women has grown to 12 because some women left their share, but even though the price of checking whips is now threepence, the whip-women of today cannot make a living, they say.

"I was attacked with a malady that at first I did not think was serious until about the beginning of last March, when it became evident that I could do nothing. I consulted a doctor and he told me I was suffering from kidney trouble. "I was obliged to take to my bed. I had a Dodd's Almanac in the house and saw a few of the testimonials, then bought 3 boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and a box of Diamond Diaper Pills. "I can assure you that they have made me well, and the pain in my back, the aches in the shoulders is gone, am completely relieved of my trouble."

Socialism and Capitalism

The Dreamers Who Would Upset the Present Social Order

If there were no need of betterment there would be no need of politics. But it is a long leap from the proposition that capitalism has not produced an earthly paradise to the proposition that it must therefore be replaced by a totally different system founded on a theory of which nothing is known but that its champions disagree among themselves as to what it means, and that they attempt to put one version of it into practice, has resulted in a frightful national catastrophe.—London Daily Telegraph.

PAINS ACROSS THE BACK

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mitchell, Ontario.—"I have taken your medicine for a number of years. I do not take it steadily all the time, but I have never lost it. I mean, and that I attempt to put one version of it into practice, has resulted in a frightful national catastrophe.—London Daily Telegraph.

"I can assure you that they have made me well, and the pain in my back, the aches in the shoulders is gone, am completely relieved of my trouble."

The merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is known by women who experience what this medicine will do for them. Many a lady has been cured of such troubles as constipation, headache, nervousness, and all the ills that women are liable to. This well-known medicine is a fair trial.

Do you know that in a recent canvass of 100,000 women, 98 per cent. of the women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound over 250,000 replies were received. To the question, "Have you received benefit from taking this medicine?" 98 per cent. replied, "Yes."

This means that is out of every 100 women there are 98 who have given this medicine a fair trial.

BUILDING ROADS

A PROFESSION

In addressing the Macleod Board of Trade on the subject of roads recently, Hon. Alex. Ross stated that: "Building roads was a profession; that maintaining roads was another business, but in the southern part of the province, which he was delighted to visit, the building of roads was much easier than in the northern districts. Road building is a live question today, everyone is interested in them, one way or another.

"The present system the government are working on is connected with the scheme of the Dominion government, which voted $20,000,000 for roads for the Dominion, and each province that builds up to a standard will receive its share of this amount. The time limit was 1925, but it has been extended to 1928, and we hope by that time to have earned our share of the federal grant.

"We plan to build a main highway from the boundary on the south to Athabasca in the north, from Crows' Nest in the west to Medicine Hat. We are now surfacing the road from Calgary to Banff and will complete the road from Calgary to High River, then to Cayley.

"We expect to build from Calgary to Macleod, from the Glacier Park in Montana to Macleod, from Crows' Nest to Macleod, and from Medicine Hat to Macleod, as you will see, making this town an important centre. It is the crossing of the Red and Blue trails.

"We will spend on the road from Pincher Creek to Waterton, this year, $18,000. From Glenwood to Waterton Lakes the road will be made fit for travel.

"Banff in 1924 registered 22,000 cars from outside. This year they expect many more. If you will be patient, we will in a few years have good roads to all parts of the province," said Mr. Ross.

COLEMAN HARDWARE

MAN WINS ESSAY

Mr. F. J. Lote, manager of the Coleman Hardware Co., received a letter in which was enclosed a cheque for $10 from the Boeckh Co. Ltd., Toronto, notifying him that he was the winner of third prize in a recent essay competition.

The competition was open to all hardware men and their clerks in Canada and consisted of an essay of not over 500 words on "Methods of Displaying and Selling Boeckh Brushes." Prizes were awarded, not on the literary value of the articles submitted, but those containing the most practical and useful suggestions of how to increase the sale of these brushes in the average retail store. Seven prizes, ranging from $25 to $2, were offered.

With a large number of contestants entered from all parts of the Dominion, Coleman is singularly honored in having one of the major prizes awarded to a local man.—The Commercial Review.

THE AL. G. BARNES

BIG 4-RING CIRCUS

The announcement of Al. G. Barnes 4-ring circus appears in this issue. The coming of this organization is welcome news, as the Al. G. Barnes Circus is one that always presents a clean, wholesome and entertaining program.

This year, according to announcements, the circus has been greatly enlarged, and in addition to the all new spectacle of Pocahontas at the Court of Queen Anne with the enormous cast, selected from the 1069 employees, other new features are: 180 horses in one big act, The Fox-Ton Tribe of Arabs from the Sahara Desert—their first visit to America, The Canton Troupe of Chinese Circus Artists, The Imperial Midget Family from Bavaria, Joe Martin (himself),

The Giant Gorilla Man, Lotus, the only performing hippopotamus in the world, and the Famous Exclusive Al. G. Barnes appears in person at each performance.

Owing to the enormous size of the circus this year, the management announces that no street parade will be given in any city visited, however, in place of the omitted procession, a mammoth Open Air Free Exhibition will take place on the show grounds at 1.00 and 7.00 p.m., immediately preceding the opening of the doors to the circus, and the largest travelling menagerie in the world, comprising 400 rare animals from all quarters of the earth.

The circus performance starts promptly at 2.00 and 8.00 p.m. Ample parking space is reserved on the show grounds and a City Ticket Office, where numbered reserved chairs may be obtained at the same price charged on the show grounds, is maintained in each city.

The Al. G. Barnes big 4-ring circus will exhibit afternoon and night at Blairmore on Wednesday, June 3rd.

At a special sitting of the District Court held in Blairmore on Wednesday, the action of V. Poch versus Jack Novakovich was decided in favor of the plaintiff, judgment being given for $168.00 and costs, and the defendant's counterclaim dismissed. This was an action in which the plaintiff attached the defendant's car, claiming that the debt would be lost without an order for attachment. K. G. Craig represented the plaintiff and D. G. Mackenzie, of Gillis & Mackenzie, the defendant.

Stoney Indians Prepare for Celebration

1. Stoney Mountain Indians gathering in the hotel yard at Banff for the distribution of the Pow-wow prizes.
2. An Indian encampment scene. Insert: The Duke of Connaught as a Technoga chief.

These are Technoga or Stoney Mountain Indians—"people of the woods". Time was when they were a blood-thirsty lot, with a partiality for white men's scalps and an unpleasant habit of slaying anybody they did not happen to approve of. But look at them now. Their war-like glory has departed and they realize that the white-man is not such a bad sort of chap after all. Big Chief Powderface is as friendly as a Rotary president, and he and his six hundred braves come over every year to Banff, all decked out in their gala attire, and celebrate the burning of the hatchet by a two-day carnival and Pow-wow.

The occasion is called an "Indian Day and Pow-wow" and consists of a series of parades, sports and encampment scenes and events. It always takes place on the third Monday and Tuesday in July, falling this year on the 23rd and 24th. The individual in the insert is not and never was, blood-thirsty nor fond of scalps. It is the Duke of Connaught in his regalia as an Honorary Chief of the Stoney Mountain Tribe. The picture was taken on the occasion of His Excellency's visit to the Rockies when he was Governor General of Canada during the war.

This year's Pow-wow and Indian Day will be the thirty-third since its inauguration. After the field events, the members of the Tribe meet in the yard of the Banff Springs Hotel for the distribution of prizes. The big picture above depicts the scene which usually follows the prize distribution.

Here and There

During 1924 the 1,800 bee-keepers of Manitoba marketed 1,300,000 pounds of honey, valued at $195,000, according to official returns by the Provincial Apiarist.

Prof. J. A. Allen, Provincial Geologist of Alberta, declares in an official statement that sixty-two billion tons of coal, half of which is recoverable, lie beneath the surface of Alberta soil.

Seymour Backus, Vice-President of the Backus-Brooks Company, of Winnipeg, states that the largest producing pulp mill in the world will be in operation at Kenora, Ont., before the end of 1925.

It is estimated that Vancouver will ship approximately 25,000,000 bushels of grain of the 1924 crop. Shipments already total 21,188,000 bushels. Commitments for almost 1,000,000 additional bushels have been made.

The special train operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway and known as The Trans-Canada Limited, which makes the journey across the entire country in eighty-eight hours, recently commenced its season, the seventh since its inception.

According to a bulletin issued by the Bureau of Statistics Alberta's foreign population is in excess of 180,000 with approximately 100,000 American included in the total. About 5,000 Americans reside in Calgary.

When Their Majesties King George and Queen Mary paid their official visit to the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley shortly after the reopening, they boarded the miniature Canadian Pacific train and made a trip around "Treasure Island" and expressed great interest in all they saw.

An effort will be made this year to transplant Swiss mountain roses in the Canadian Rockies. These roses, which were brought from Switzerland by Dr. Huebner, late Swiss Consul at Montreal, are extremely hardy and only thrive above elevations of 8,000 feet. They will be planted in the gardens at Lake Louise and Banff.

The first trip of the Canadian Pacific S.S. Princess Kathleen from Vancouver to Seattle via Victoria was recently made under most successful conditions. The people of Seattle are so enthusiastic over the increased coastwise service that they have tendered an address of thanks to Captain Troup, manager of the Canadian Pacific Coastal service.

There is every possibility that the Provincial Government of British Columbia may this year complete the construction of the scenic highway connecting Golden on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway with the summer resorts of Banff and Lake Louise. When this link, much of which was built during the past two seasons, is completed it will make one magnificent triangle through the heart of the Canadian Rockies.

Building permits issued in Canada during the first quarter of 1925 were 10.2% and 1.2% greater than in the first three months of 1924 and 1923, respectively. There were also 5.5% greater than in the first quarter of 1922, 46.5% higher than in 1921 and 4.3% above the 1920 total. The aggregate value of building permits issued for the first quarter of 1925 was $19,672,637, compared with $17,846,969 for 1924 and $19,441,159 for 1923.

A GREAT MOVIE STAR

The greatest movie star of them all is to visit Blairmore on Wednesday, June 3rd. This illustrious member of the studio stars carries his own physician with him in the person of Dr. Robert Gunning, and a graduate nurse, Miss Elsie Munson. The star in question is making his first personal appearance and is no less a one than Joe Martin, himself, which is one of the features of the Al. G. Barnes Big 4-Ring Circus.

Joe is said to be the most valuable animal in the world, and no less than four persons are constantly engaged looking after Joe's comforts. A specially designed wagon fitted with hot water, heat and fans has been provided by the mechanics of the Barnes circus and Joe will lead the life of a real star during his tour this year.

REV. W. T. YOUNG DECIDES TO REMAIN ANOTHER YEAR

We understand that Rev. W. T. Young has signified his willingness to remain another year as pastor of the Blairmore Union Church, and will be the first pastor of the Blairmore United Church on and after June the 10th.

Mr. Young had fully decided to look for pastures new and while waiting upon the action of the Methodist and Presbyterian church stationing committees, the local church board urged upon him to reconsider his resignation. This he has done and has notified the secretary of the Board of his decision in the matter.

CLIFFORD HIGGIN ON FESTIVAL

Calgary, May 19th, 1925.

Rev. W. T. Young,
Union Church, Blairmore, Alberta.
Dear Mr. Young:

I feel that I should like to say a few words on the recent festival at Blairmore. I was greatly surprised at the general excellence in the various classes I had to adjudicate.

You have undoubtedly started a great musical movement and from the enthusiasm and interest displayed, by both the competitors and the audience generally, this new movement should without doubt be continued. Pianoforte playing was highly satisfactory, the violin playing was characterized by exceedingly good intonation, which speaks well for the candidates' training. In the vocal classes we heard some exceedingly fine voices, and six soloists who sang at the evening concert all possessed voices that should undoubtedly seek sound and careful training.

In the orchestra class, the orchestra all played well, and it is pleasing to note a taste for orchestral music in the smaller towns of the province.

Please impress on the people the necessity of developing this festival idea which was so ably carried out by your committee.

Wishing you continued success in this great work.

I remain, sincerely yours,

(Sgd) CLIFFORD HIGGIN.

MUSIC—TEACHER AND PUPIL

It is sometimes assumed that the teacher is a kind of magician who holds the keys of a box wherein lie the indispensable secrets. With all due respect, this view gives too much importance to the teacher, and too little to the pupil. The teacher's activity is necessarily limited. He can only go so far. There is the education that one gives to oneself. The most the teacher can do is to quicken the perception of his pupil, encourage him to explore for himself, and rely upon his own instinct to sense that which counts. It is manifest that whatever the merits of the teacher, that however painstaking he may be, there still remains something which only the pupil can supply. Without a free and benevolent give and take, there is small chance of success. The teacher ought not to be a remote personage to whom the pupil hesitates to unbuckle himself. The pupil ought not to go away from a lesson contemplating a score of difficulties of which he has said nothing.

—W. J. Harris (Violin) Bellevue.
[Mr. Harris takes violin pupils every Wednesday at the residence of Sam Ennis.]

Mr. George Matheson, special representative for "Clothes of Quality," will be at the F. M. Thompson Co's store on Thursday and Friday, with a special line of the latest styles and models.

ARE PLANNING TO REDUCE COST OF IMMIGRATION

Ottawa.—The department of immigration is negotiating with representatives of the two big Canadian railway systems to reduce the cost of immigration and colonization activities abroad. This statement was made by Hon. J. A. Robb in the House of Commons just as the house adjourned after three hours' discussion of salaries of the department of immigration.

There had been much criticism of the alleged duplication of work as between the Canadian Government agencies and the Canadian National railways' colonization agents overseas. Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the Opposition, said it was "the height of hypocrisy" that Canada should have three different immigration services, that of the government and those of the two railways. He believed the Canadian railways sold more lands when their expenditure on colonization was $100,000 a year than now, when it was $750,000 a year.

Mr. Robb's remarks, just as the item was being voted, implied that negotiations were now going on to co-ordinate the three services and eliminate duplicate expenditure wherever possible.

British Anglicans Discuss Union With Catholics

Delegation of Theologians Will Go to Belgium to Study Question

Brussels.—The Libre Belgique prints a letter received by Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, announcing the arrival at an early date in Malines of a delegation of British theologians. The delegation, which will be under the patronage of the Archbishop of Canterbury and York, will meet a group of Catholic theologians with a view to studying together, in a friendly spirit, the problem of a union of churches.

Trees For Delegates

Amawalk, N.Y.—"To symbolize the ever strengthening bonds of friendship between the democracies of the world," Police Commissioner Earlright, of New York, gave a young tree to each of the seventy foreign delegates to the international police conference here. Such trees are not thrown overboard just outside the statue of Liberty, but are transplanted in the delegates' home towns.

Perian Independence

London.—That Great Britain had no protectionist aims in Persia but desired only the independence of that country, was insisted by the Earl of Balfour, speaking in the House of Lords, in his new role of lord president of the council. He answered criticism from foreign sources of Britain's policy in Persia, declaring that it was entirely due to "misinformation with regard to oil and other matters."

Jamaica Controlling Immigration

Kingston, Ja.—Following much public clamor, the government has decided to take drastic steps to control immigration. Aliens in the future will have to produce British passports from the British consul at the port of embarkation before they are allowed to land here. The measure aims especially at Chinese and Syrians.

Find Silver in Australia

Sydney, Australia.—A river and lead field at Broken Hill, New South Wales, promises to be even better than had been imagined. The government geologists have just reported that the ore reserves in that section are greater than at first supposed. The geologists' report is much more favorable than was anticipated.

Allied Debt Problem

Paris.—Premier Painlevé, Foreign Minister Briand, and Finance Minister Cailhau held a conference to study the French financial situation, including the question of inter-allied debts, and the decisions which are arrived at will be submitted to the next cabinet meeting for approval.

Illicit Alcohol Ring

He announced that Paul Tardieu and Francis Coll, both of whom were maintained during the war, have completed and tested the machine in which they expect to hop off July 25 from the commercial field at Le Bourget.

London.—Speculation as to whether the British Government sent a message of congratulation to President Von Hindenburg of Germany on his inauguration, ended when Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain, answering a question in the House of Commons, said congratulations had not been sent.

He explained it is not the practice of His Majesty's Government to send out felicitations to the president of another nation.

The council of ambassadors have been postponing its meetings repeatedly on this account, and again adjourned without fixing another date for the meeting. It is hoped, however, that an Anglo-French accord will be reached soon regarding the disarmament note and that the council of ambassadors can dispatch it to Berlin without much more delay.

DISCUSS DETAILS OF THE RETURN OF RESOURCES

Ottawa.—The committee comprising representatives of prairie provinces and the Dominion Government will sit in conference frequently during the next few days on the details of the return of the natural resources, now controlled by the Dominion, to the provinces.

Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, chairman, indicated that there was a multitude of matters to be considered by the committee, including the land to be set aside for Indian reserves, and the land to be assigned to the Hudson's Bay Company. The actual terms of settlement were not, he intimated, ready to be announced at the present time. Whether or not the final settlement could be disposed of by parliament this session would depend upon the progress made by the committee during the next few days.

London Paper Attacks Lord Chief Justice

Official Criticized For Writing Journalistic Articles For Press

London.—Lord Hewart, lord chief justice of England, has been added to the list of prominent officials attacked for writing to the press. He recently contributed an article with regard to technical objections to peace terms in their right sitting in the House of Lords. The Westminster Gazette says the gist of the discussion surrounding the question of officials contributing to the newspapers is that "the man in the street, who reads those ponderous articles and hears that enormous fees are paid for them, is beginning to wonder if it does not lower the dignity of public life when highly paid servants supplement their salaries by popular journalism."

The salary of the lord chief justice is £10,000 a year.

Improve Housing Conditions

London.—First reading was given in the House of Commons to the bill introduced by E. ## PLEDGE IS GIVEN FOR GERMANY BY STRESEMAN

Berlin.—Foreign Minister Stresemann provided a shock to France when he delivered a comprehensive statement of German policy in the Reichstag. For two hours Stresemann outlined the principles that will guide the government. He announced that a commercial treaty with the United States would be presented to the Reichstag shortly.

Referring to the continental security pact proposals, Stresemann said that Germany could not admit the permanence of her eastern frontier, where a large slice of German territory has been incorporated within Poland, but that she did not intend to seek revision by force. This statement will shock such Frenchmen as believe that the treaty constitutes a sort of New Testament for Europe, and that revision of its clauses must not be contemplated.

Stresemann simultaneously pledged Germany to honorable observance of the requirements of the Dawes plan, emphasized the importance of the United States financial assistance to Germany, and described the United States as the nation whose most vital efforts to revive Europe must emanate. He recalled the infusion of American money into German industry and declared that the United States political understanding of Germany was increasing.

Lloyd George Is Silent

Has Already Prepared Plan of Campaign Is Believed

London.—The role of sphinx is a new one for Lloyd George, but he is filling it so successfully that he is again becoming the most commanding and interesting figure in British politics.

Liberals who are being asked to subscribe lavishly to the new treasury chest which the party is creating are asking anxiously when Lloyd George is going to emerge from the state of semi-retirement which seems now to envelop him, and announce in public the plan of campaign which he is believed to have prepared.

Lloyd George, of course, will adhere to his policy of free trade and social reform, but the Liberals are going to be terribly disappointed if he fails to emerge from his tent with a good winning platform. His future leadership is going to depend upon his ability to produce one.

Criticizes U.S. Government

Action on Debt Is Condemned by London Paper

London.—The Morning Post, commenting upon the action of the United States in soliciting funding proposals from its European debtors, condemns the United States attitude on the question and deplores the present step. ## TIME FOR ACTION ON QUESTION OF RURAL CREDITS

Ottawa.—The time has arrived when action should be taken in this matter," declared Hon. H. H. Stevens, in discussing the question of rural credits before the banking and commerce committee of the house. Mr. Stevens opposed a motion to rescind a resolution passed at a previous meeting, urging upon the government that legislation be brought down at this session for the establishment of an adequate rural credit system.

The motion to rescind was defeated and an amendment by Mr. Stevens correcting technical errors in the original resolution, carried after considerable discussion.

Representatives were received from various mortgage corporations, asking for the right to present their views on the subject. The committee intimated that, if legislation were brought down, representatives of mortgage corporations and rural credit associations probably would be afforded an opportunity to appear before the committee.

PROBLEMS OF EMPIRE DETAILED TO COMMITTEE

London.—The Earl of Balfour, lord president of the council, announced in the House of Lords that the government would set up a committee similar to the committee on imperial defence. The committee, however, will deal with problems of empire development. Lord Balfour's announcement was made in the course of a discussion on native labor questions in the British colonies. He explained that the new committee's aim would be to deal with new and purely civilian problems, which were becoming increasingly insistent in connection with imperial development.

He instanced the combatting of the plague, and famine of Commons. The amendment would provide machinery for examining into such problems, respecting which, heretofore, no departmental methods existed for forming an opinion.

Changes On Stamp Tax Act

Amendments Have Been Given Third Reading in House

Ottawa.—Special amendments to the Special War Revenue Act, respecting stamp taxes, has been given third reading in the House of Commons.

The amendments provide for a definition of a cheque which will require the issuer of "cheat tickets" or "cream tickets" or other documents issued by a company to a farmer negotiable at a bank to obtain a stamp. There will be a minimum stamp tax on foreign bills of $1.

Under the amendment a person can transfer an amount to his credit from one branch to another branch of the same bank. Money orders or travelers' cheques issued by "banks or any person" under the amendments will be subject to stamp tax. Cheques not exceeding $5 will not require the stamp. The amendments become effective July 1, 1925.

In the discussion on the bill, Sir Henry Drayton criticized the whole stamp tax law as being "nausea, aggravating and troublesome."

Presents Plan To Curb Reckless Driving

Two Reports Should Carry Penalty Says Chicago Man

Ottawa.—As a likely solution to the problem of curbing the tremendous loss of life caused by reckless automobile driving, Colonel H. C. Hayden, of Chicago, addressed the Ottawa Rotary Club, advocating the formation of a control depot in every state or province, where drivers should be licensed and their licenses made something of a value to them.

Whenever a driver was exposed to danger through the recklessness of another, he should take the offender's number and name if possible and report the incident to the central depot. Reports against a motorist should carry a penalty or suspension of driving license for a period of 60 or 90 days, a third year's suspension, and a certain number should result in the cancelling of the license.

Deer Was Friendly

Burnett, of the Kelowna, B.C., municipality recently, and stretching his nose at the food on the table indicated he would like some. "A FINE BODY OF MEN"

The members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police shown above are on duty at the British Empire Exhibition, Wembley, patrolling the Canadian Pavilion, and incidentally, showing the visitors what splendid young men the Dominion produces. The party, consisting of ten troopers, under the command of Inspector C. M. Hill, was photographed at Waterloo Station—a part of London exceptionally well known to all ex-soldiers who proceeded overseas and which they all affectionately refer to when they become reminiscences. When the above troops were disembarked at Southampton from the Canadian Pacific S.S. Minnesota they were warmly welcomed, and although they are there on duty and under strict discipline, they do not find this kind of "active service" by any means unpleasant.

INDIAN SPECTACLE

A colossal dramatic presentation of the events in the life of the only American Princess forms the outstanding feature of the Al. G. Barnes Big 4-Ring Circus which is coming to Blairmore Wednesday, June 8th.

"Pocahontas at the Court of Queen Anne" is the title of the all-new spectacle presented by Barnes this year. The story is one of which all school children are familiar and it is presented upon a scale of magnificence unusual under canvas. Three tribes of real Indians add historical color to the pageant and one tribe in particular, the Esquimaux, have never been off the reservation before. They are the tribe in which the girls' faces are tattooed in certain ways to denote if they are married or single. Special permission was granted by the government for the Al. G. Barnes circus to engage this tribe for the season's tour. Many new animal features will be presented and critics who have seen the show declare this season's performance to be Al. G. The net material value of an average human being is 98 cents, according to analytic research made by Dr. C. A. Prier, head of the department of chemistry at West Texas (U.S.) teachers' college. All these elements, he estimates, could be bought at a drug store for 98 cents.
